Sealed proposals will be received by the Division of Public Works, State of Idaho, at 611 Wilson Street, Suite 1, Pocatello, Idaho 83201-5046 until 2:00 pm local time, on Tuesday, November 5, 2019 for DPW Project 19232 Door Access Control, Exterior Doors, Idaho State University, Pocatello, Idaho.

A description of the work of this project can be summarized to include the installation of door access control on all exterior doors of Fine Arts, Pharmacy, and Liberal Arts, Frazier Hall, Business Administration, Physical Science, Engineering, and Graveley Hall, Museum, Red Hill and Dental Hygiene. Work will include card readers, electric strikes, and door alarms, replacement of old door systems, conduit and wiring. Access control will allow for electronically unlocking and locking of buildings on a schedule, which will increase the security of the university’s students, faculty, staff and assets.

Proposals will be opened and publicly read at the above hour and date.

Plans, specifications, proposal forms and other information are on file for examination at the following locations:
