1. Responses to questions submitted by July 25th:

Question 1: If we engage a GC to provide cost estimating services for the project, will that preclude them from bidding on the project later? This is not stated in the RFQ.

Response 1: Project construction cost estimating techniques are not required to be disclosed. Any GC providing quotes for estimates are still required to bid for the project, but not disqualified for providing an estimate to the design professional.

Question 2: Who is the design team that has prepared the high-level feasibility study in partnership with Freeform?

Response 2: There was no design team that provided insight to Freeform for the initial feasibility study.

Question 3: Will the feasibility study/drawings be shared with the RFQ Addendum 2?

Response 3: The initial layout drawings provided by Freeform are attached.

Question 4: Are as-builts available?

Response 4: Any available as-built drawings will be made available to the selected team.
